MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Rowta Degree College was established on May 1, 2012, with the noble objective of addressing the educational needs of the then underdeveloped Rowta area. Since its inception, the college has experienced substantial growth in student enrolment, becoming a vital educational hub in Rowta. This higher educational institution was founded in the heart of Rowta Chariali on May 1, 2012, by the public of the greater Rowta area, aiming to uplift the society through higher education. Despite various economic and social challenges, the college has emerged as a beacon of education, serving diverse castes and communities in the region. Currently, the Degree College offers programs in the Arts stream. The curriculum and syllabus align with the standards set by Bodoland University. Presently, the college has 27 qualified and experienced faculty members dedicated to imparting quality education.
